Sen. Stamas' Gaylord district office now open

Lansing — Residents of the 36th Senate District now have an additional opportunity to share their concerns and opinions about state government issues with the office of State Sen. Tony Stamas (R-Midland). Stamas opened a new district office in Gaylord earlier this week.

“Opening this district office will help provide a direct connection to my office without having to travel to Lansing,” Stamas said. “Having an open line of communication with your constituency is a fundamental aspect of being an effective legislator. I am confident this office will allow me to better serve the residents of my district.”

The office is located at 1349 S. Otsego Ave., Unit 1A, in the Parkside Mini Mall. The phone number is (989) 732-3190. The office opened Monday, Nov. 3, and plans are underway for an open house.

Office hours will be announced soon.
